

Schedule

Saturday, June 17, 2017
Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church
128 7th. Street
Zanesville, Ohio

8:30-9:00 Registration

9:00-10:15 DNA in Your Family Tree: Everyone is jumping on the DNA test bandwagon today. Should you join the crowd? There are three major companies and new ones starting up. Which company should you test with? This presentation will discuss the different companies and their advantages and disadvantages. It will also explain the three different types of DNA tests and what each one can or cannot achieve. Before you spend your money, it is important to know what you want to achieve and the best way to do that.

10:15-10:30 Break

10:30-11:45 The Popular Autosomal Test (FamilyFinder, Ancestry, 23andMe): The most popular DNA test today is the Autosomal Test. It's the test used by Ancestry and 23andMe and the Family Finder Test for Family Tree DNA. What is an autosomal DNA test? Learn how autosomal DNA is inherited through the generations and its uses and limitations. Discover a bit about how to use the results and how testing other relatives can help your research.

11:45-1:00 Lunch. Served by the Morgan and Noble County Chapters OGS. Spaghetti and Meatballs, Vegetables, Salad, Garlic Bread, Dessert and Beverage.

1:00-2:15 Finding Buried Treasure in the Published Pennsylvania Archives: The published Pennsylvania Archives set, containing 138 volumes, is the most valuable research tool for Colonial (1681-1774) and Revolutionary (1775-1783) records including baptisms, marriages, militia, land warrantees, tax lists, and immigration records. Understanding how to access these volumes is a key to success in finding your early Pennsylvania ancestor.

2:15-2:30 Break

2:30-3:45 Thinking Outside the Index: Advanced Search Techniques—This lecture examines why some records cannot be found using present indexes and gives alternative methods for searches and alternative search engines. Finding these hidden treasures usually helps to burn brick walls.

3:45-4:00 Break

4:00-4:30 Drawing, Chapter Announcements and Closing.
