Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church
128 S 7th. Street
Zanesville, Ohio

8:30-9:00 Registration

9:00-10:15 “Not Online” Doesn’t Mean Out of Reach—Even when a record we need is not online, the internet can make accessing it easier. Learn tips and tricks to research from afar.

10:15-10:30 Break

10:30-11:45 He Used to Be My Ancestor: Avoiding Seven Common Mistakes—Finding time to research our ancestors is challenging enough. We don’t want to spend time re-searching people we thought were our ancestor, only to find out later that they aren’t. Learn to identify and avoid seven common research pitfalls that can confuse identity and create those “former ancestors.”

11:45-1:00 Lunch. Served by the Morgan and Noble County Chapters OGS. Coleslaw, Mini Meatloaf, Cheesy Potatoes, Green Beans, Roll and butter, Dessert and Beverage.

1:00-2:15 Where Does It Say That? Learning to Love Indirect Evidence—Without documents telling us what we need to know, how can we answer our research questions and arrive at sound conclusions? By using indirect evidence!

2:15-2:30 Break

2:30-3:45 Beyond the Docket Books: Digging For Gold In Probate Packets—Probate records provide an intimate window through which to view the lives of our ancestors, revealing information about them that make their identities unique.

3:45-4:00 Break

4:00-4:30 Drawing, Chapter Announcements and Closing.
